

Luxulyan Valley Partnership

Open Event and Annual General Meeting

Luxulyan Village Hall

St Cyriac, Luxulyan, Bodmin PL30 5QA

Join us from 12 noon for displays about the Luxulyan Valley, activities from meadow barns and showing of the Cornwall Heritage Trust short film The Treffry Viaduct with John Smith.

Keynote Speeches at 2pm

Cheryl Marriott: Time to Bring Back Beavers?

Cheryl is Head of Conservation at Cornwall Wildlife Trust and will introduce the topic of beavers and their role as 'ecosystem engineers'.

Dan Cooke: Our Protected Landscapes – Challenges and Opportunities

Dan is Protected Landscapes manager at Cornwall Council and will discuss the challenges and opportunities in this new role with a particular focus on the future of the World Heritage Site.

Vision Plan Survey: The Luxulyan Valley Partnership is seeking to develop a vision plan for the Valley and will be launching a survey to collect your views and suggestions will be launched at the Open Event.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the Luxulyan Valley Partnership will start at 3pm and be directly followed by an Ordinary Meeting.

If you require more information, please contact: charlotte.evans@cornwall.gov.uk